Employer's Feedback on Curriculum Design and Implementation 2018-19

Action Taken Report

Based on the employer's feedback for the year 2018-19, IQAC has initiated several actions to enhance the curriculum:

Integrating Practical Experiences: Responding to the 15.4% who disagreed regarding the integration of practical experiences by revising course structures, introducing hands-on learning opportunities, and strengthening industry partnerships to provide more practical exposure.

Improving Employability: Addressing the 30.8% of respondents who felt neutral and the 7.7% who disagreed about the curriculum's contribution to employability by enhancing career-oriented courses, internships, and soft skills training to better align with industry requirements.

Fostering Leadership Skills: Developing specific modules or programs focused on leadership development to address the needs highlighted by the 15.4% who disagreed regarding the curriculum's contribution to leadership skills.

Increasing Industry Exposure: Strengthening partnerships with industries, organizing more industrial visits, and incorporating real-world case studies to address concerns about inadequate industry exposure raised by 7.7% of respondents.

These actions aim to ensure that the curriculum remains dynamic, relevant, and effectively prepares students for the challenges of the professional world.
