Call for Collaborative Empirical Research Proposals on Jal Jeevan Mission (JJM)

Dear Faculty Members,

We are pleased to bring to your attention an exciting opportunity for collaborative research under the Jal Jeevan Mission (JJM), a landmark initiative by the Government of India aimed at providing safe and adequate drinking water through individual household tap connections in rural India by 2024.

The Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) has issued a Call for Collaborative Empirical Research Proposals to assess the effectiveness of the Jal Jeevan Mission. This research aims to evaluate changes in access to clean water, improvements in health outcomes, and socio-economic impacts such as increased productivity and reduced healthcare costs. We encourage our faculty members to consider applying for this research opportunity. The proposed research should include:

- Comprehensive surveys of stakeholders such as beneficiaries, local authorities, and implementing agencies.
- Assessment of infrastructure gaps, operational challenges, and barriers to achieving universal water access.
- Generation of new knowledge on rural water supply and management practices, including traditional water management systems.

Important Dates:

- Last date for submission of online form: 17th September 2024
- Last date for submission of hard copy: 23rd September 2024

We encourage all interested faculty members to collaborate on this significant research endeavor. For further details and assistance, please contact the Internal Quality Assurance Cell.

Let us seize this opportunity to contribute to a transformative project that aligns with our commitment to sustainable development and rural progress.

Warm regards,

Dr. Shihabudheen N
